

My Four Weeks in France (Classic Reprint)

Wednesday, July 18. A Lake Michigan Port. I kept an appointment to-day with a gentleman from Somewhere in Connecticut. How, said he, would you like to go to France? I told him I'd like it very much, but that I was thirty-two years old, with a dependable wife and three unreliable children. Those small details, he said, exempt you from military duty. But we want you as a war correspondent. I told him I knew nothing about war. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
