

Poems: Love, Loss, Pain and Joy.

Book of poetry. Many were written as songs and the tunes still bounce around in my head. Many were written as a way to express an emotion that I could never show, in this politically correct world. Some are just the fanciful ponderings of a young mind and others the wishful dreams of a lonely soul. Whatever you read within these pages, whether you think them childish or naive, just know every word came from a place of truth that we all carry inside us.
