

Six Plays for Children

Six Plays for Children by Aurand Harris brings together a variety of dramatic forms that have enormously enriched the literature of childrens theatre in this country and around the world. These works by this respected childrens theatre playwright show Harriss great versatility: in the commedia dellarte of Androcles and the Lion; the musical melodrama Rags to Riches; the sober, absurd comedy Punch and Judy; the realistic historical drama Steal Away Home; the farce Pecks Bad Boy; and the musical review Yankee Doodle. Each of the six plays exhibits a vital theatricality which is sure to win a childs attention and response. Editor Coleman A. Jennings traces Harriss development as a playwright in a biographical study based on interviews with Harris. This enlightening section treats Harriss philosophy and teaching methods, as well as his creative process.
